

Red

2014 Comtesse de Marion , £15.50
Merlot, IGP Pays d'Oc

The Vic family's Merlot has won huge praise and many repeat orders from satisfied customers. It's a wine which always shows attractive typicity: aromas of sweet plum with a leafy touch, followed by a supple and lightly creamy, berried palate with barely discernible tannins.

Château La Plage, Bordeaux £18.00
Superieur, 2012

From from Frédéric Naud, a fifth generation vigneron, a blend of 40% Merlot, 35% Cabernet Sauvignon and 25% Cabernet Franc. Friendly raspberry nose. Supple, aromatic, red fruited with a proper claret structure.

Les Vignerons d'Estezargues, Cotes £18.00
du Rhone, Terra Vitis, 2015

Terra Vitis is a sustainable, minimal intervention farming discipline, half way to organic viticulture, practiced by five members of this small co-operative. As opposed to the Galets this has Carignan and Mourvèdre in the blend too, so is more black-fruited, and has a little more stuffing.
